

As a transportation manager I rely on XM radio for my job. This would be crazy to band it. I know where to find weather and traffic reports instantly . Before I would spend minutes to hours finding a local weather report or traffic report on FM or AM. By that time I am either threw the City or stuck there for an hour or more because I could not find a proper traffic report. A loyal XM listner.
Chris McCrady